++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Some warm sunshine on Saturday. Turning unsettled thereafter.

Today:
A fine and dry day with variable amounts of cloud early morning but plenty of sunshine later. The odd shower cannot be ruled out, particularly in the west. Low cloud may also linger around the Wash. Warm. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry and largely clear evening. However, low cloud will spread westward later, reaching all parts by dawn. Mist and fog forming in places, dense near coasts. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Sunday:
Generally cloudy though brightening up for a time. An organised band of showers is expected to spread north late afternoon, often heavy. Likely to stay dry in the north. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Changeable, often cloudy through the period, with bands of rain or showers, locally heavy and potentially thundery. Warm by day but feeling humid. Perhaps drier and brighter on Wednesday.
